STEPHENS TO GIVE FULL TIME TO JURY

Howard Drawn Into Probe Because He "Felt
It His Duty to Find Out
Truth of Rumors."

The citizens' committee, sponsoring and supporting the grand jury investigation into alleged graft and corruption at the city hall, took an active and public move Monday with the appointment of William Schley Howard, former congressman, as special prosecutor and the designation of H. A. Allen, another noted lawyer, to a place on the solicitor-general's staff to relieve Assistant Solicitor Ed A. Stephens from all other duties save those pertaining to the grand jury.

Both Mr. Howard and Mr. Allen were sworn in as special assistant solicitors-general and immediately began their new duties, the former going into the grand jury room and the latter to court for prosecution of a criminal case.

Mr. Howard issued a formal statement asserting that he had been drawn into the investigation solely because he felt it his duty as a citizen to find out the truth of an "alarming number of rumors which have been floating about."

"It is to exonerate the innocent as well as to severely punish the guilty that I am here," the former congressman said. "It is a cold-blooded matter with me and I must do my duty as I conceive it under the oath I took today."

Boykin Leads Appointment.
Solicitor-General John A. Boykin also issued a formal statement on Mr. Howard's appointment, declaring that he felt sure the selection of the former congressman was the result of the "heavy approval of the citizens."

Though the decision of Mr. Howard to accept the proffered post of special assistant solicitor-general was made until Saturday, when he conferred with Solicitor-General Boykin at Mr. Howard's offices in the Hurt building, it was learned that the former was made to Mr. Howard 10 days ago, immediately after the first meeting of the executive board of the citizens' committee.

Mr. Howard deferred his decision, it was learned, because of a heavy business he has pending in court. However, he accepted Saturday, after it was agreed that a number of cases in which he is interested in are to be put off until such a time as he is ready to try them.

Solicitor-General Boykin appeared elated over Mr. Howard's acceptance. "I do not know of anyone who could be of greater assistance to me," Mr. Boykin said.

To Devote Full Time.
In explaining the appointment of Mr. Allen as a special assistant to Mr. Howard, the solicitor-general said that from now until the completion of the investigation he planned to devote his entire time to it, leaving the routine grand jury matters in the hands of Mr. Stephens, leaving John H. Hudson, Mr. Allen and J. Walter McCraw available for the trial of cases pending.

It was announced that Mr. Hudson would take over the prosecution of the case against Elwell L. Hardgrove, charged with the murder of Professor A. H. Johnson, which is scheduled to go on trial before a jury in Judge Virgil B. Moore's division of the Fulton superior court today. Mr. Hudson will be aided by Paul S. Eberidge, who will appear as an assistant solicitor-general. It is understood that Mr. Eberidge was employed by Mrs. J. R. Wakefield, a sister of Professor Johnson, and other members of the slain instructor's family.

Statement of Howard.
Following are the statements of Mr. Howard and Mr. Boykin regarding the former's appointment:

By Mr. Howard:

"I have accepted employment as assistant to the solicitor-general in conducting this investigation. The sole purpose I have in view is to conduct a thorough and impartial investigation of all matters which have been or will be presented to the solicitor-general or the grand jury."

"It is a cold-blooded professional matter with me to do my duty as I conceive it under my oath."

"This grand jury, the solicitor-general, and those associated with him

President Catches Weighty Sailfish

LONG KEY, Fla., Feb. 10.—(UN)—Hoover in a small motorboat, likewise hooked a sailfish, but it was seized by a shark before he could land it. Other fishermen in the party, Dr. Vernon Kellogg, Washington scientist; Mark Sullivan, Washington journalist; and Laurence Richey, Mr. Hoover's secretary, brought home several fish, but not the much prized sailfish.

While their husbands were busy with rod and reel, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Richey remained on their houseboats enjoying the balmy sea air. The former three are on the Saunterer, chartered from Jerry Milbank, New York city, while the Richeys are using the Kilkeny, commerce department boat.

Tonight a tropical moon hangs over the harbor where the Saunterer lies at anchor. The scenery perhaps is reminiscent of the Monterey (Cal.) setting where the Hoovers were married by Father Ramon Mestres, a Catholic priest acting as a civil magistrate, 31 years ago. Mr. Hoover and the then Miss Lou Henry had been friends in Leland Stanford University, where both were students. Graduation parted them.

The young mining engineer went to Australia, on the other side of the world, to follow his profession.

In time there came an offer of important work at a lucrative salary from the Chinese government. The engineer, called his California sweetheart asking an important question. "Yes," was the answer the cable brought back, and young Herbert Hoover sailed for California.

COVERDALE DENIES STEEL FIRM SALE FOR DR. DURHAM

Report of Purchase of
Gulf States Steel Company
Called Baseless.

Emphatic denial that the Gulf States Steel Company, of which he is president, had been sold to the Cyrus Eaton interests, of Cleveland, was made in Atlanta Monday night by William H. Coverdale, president of the Gulf States Company, before leaving for Birmingham on a continued inspection of Seaboard Air Line railway holdings. He was recently named chairman of the board of that railway.

Mr. Coverdale, senior member of the nationally known firm of consulting engineers, Coverdale, Smith and Co., heavily interested in steel, oil and railroad holdings in the south and southwest, was in Atlanta with President L. R. Powell, Jr., of Norfolk, and other officials of the Seaboard.

"The report from New York that the Gulf States has been sold to the Eaton or the Republic Steel Company," he added, "but it has not been seriously entertained by our company. In addition, by-laws of the company provide that only three new directors are to be elected each year and it would take at least three years for a new board to transfer control."

Expansion Program.
Further assurance that no sale of the property he heads was contemplated came in the statement of the Gulf States president that an expansion program of $5,000,000 for the Gadsden (Ala.) plant is under way for 1930 and that probably $5,000,000 to $7,000,000 will be spent in 1932, all with approval of the present board. Five millions in expansion was spent in 1929, he said.

With this contemplated expansion, Mr. Coverdale said, a new blooming mill, which turns ingots into billets, a new plate and a new sheet mill will be added in Gadsden, expanding the present maximum of 150,000 to an annual output of 400,000 steel products.

Mr. Coverdale admitted that the Eaton interests had been acquiring some of the stock of the Gulf States Company but added "they won't acquire enough to change control."

The annual growth of his company, which is one of the largest independent operators in the country, is $12,000,000.

Coverdale Optimistic.
Coming to Atlanta for two days of the six he will spend on a general inspection tour, Mr. Coverdale brought a striking note of optimism over the future of the Seaboard Air Line, which has, among other things, a pay roll tie-in of $2,000,000 in Atlanta.

Mr. Coverdale is accompanied on his tour by Mr. Powell and W. L. Seidman, former Atlanta now in Norfolk, who is vice president and consulting engineer of the Seaboard. Mr. Powell was host at a luncheon at the Capital City Club Monday when Mr. Coverdale was introduced to a distinguished political leader, O. Max Gardner, the present governor of North Carolina and to the celebrated chairman of the house judiciary committee in Congress during the Wilson administration and a contemporary of Dr. Durham, and Clyde R. Ewer, former ninth (N. C.) district member of congress. He was related to Major Baxter Durham, present auditor of North Carolina and to the celebrated author and preacher, Thomas Dixon.

Dr. Durham, with a strongly religious background, turned early to the

NORRIS OBJECTS; SENATE DEFERS VOTE ON HUGHES

Henry L. Dougherty
Charges Jurist and
Hughes Plot Oligarchy;
Bleasne Wants Taft Back.

BY HERBERT LITTLE,
United News Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Charges were made today by Henry L. Dougherty, the oil millionaire, that Chief Justice-designate Charles Evans Hughes and President Hoover were linked in an alleged plot to impose a super-government on the United States.

Dougherty's charge was made in a letter to the senate judiciary committee considering Hughes' nomination. The committee gave it little weight, for it voted 10 to 2, Chairman Norris and Senator Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, dissenting, to approve the nomination.

Brought up in the senate a few hours later, opposition to Hughes spread somewhat. Senator Bleasne, the irrepressible democrat from South Carolina, blocked Senate Republican Leader Watson's request for immediate action by an objection.

Bleasne announced he has called upon physicians attending William Howard Taft, who resigned as chief justice a week ago today, for a statement as to his physical condition. Bleasne charged Mr. Taft has not been as seriously ill, as represented. Bleasne said he expected a reply tomorrow from Dr. Francis Hagare, one of Mr. Taft's physicians, and would not agree to Hughes' confirmation until he receives this information.

'Can't Do It.'
"I can't do it," Bleasne said, "until I receive some documents and certificates I expect to get in the morning."

Senator Norris opposed the nomination in a speech, and Senator Glass, West Virginia, interjected to ask Norris if he knew about Hughes' famous supreme court decision in the Shreveport case, "where the last rights of the states were extirpated." This decision held that the federal government had paramount control over interstate commerce.

Bleasne's objection put the nomination over to the regular calendar, where it may not be reached for several days.

Dougherty's letter said he had heard that Justice Taft's resignation was "procured under peculiar circumstances" and that the change, announced a week ago today, was "made with unusual haste."

"There are rumors afloat," Dougherty said, "that a huge and uncontrollable political machine has been or is being built up in the government, and control of this nation will be lodged in the hands of a few men, and with the confirmation of Judge Hughes, this control will be made chief of the three co-ordinated branches of the federal government but will extend as far as possible to a control

GIRL MISSES NET IN 8-STORY LEAP

5,000 Chicagoans Witness
Leap as Fire Starts in Tall Building.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—(AP)—While a crowd estimated at 5,000 looked on, Margaret Faine, 25, one of about 200 employees of seven different firms trapped on the upper floors of a burning building near the Loop, leaped from the eighth story and was probably fatally injured late today, as she struck the edge of a life net and fell into the street. All the others escaped without serious injury.

A number of firemen and volunteers were unable to support the net under the impact of the girl's body. Witnesses said her body struck a projection on the facade of the building. The girl's skull was fractured. Three men also leaped from the eighth floor into the net and suffered no more than minor bruises. Four men and four women found on the ledges of windows on the seventh floor were rescued by firemen, who had to use scaling ladders because their extension ladders reached only to the sixth story.

At a hospital doctors said that Margaret Faine, an employee of the Western Film Company, probably would die.

The fire, which caused damage estimated at $50,000, was in the Guyver building at 1018 South Wabash avenue just south of the Loop. Some of the approximately 200 employees trapped on the seventh and eighth floors were led down blazing stairways by firemen, some got out by fire escapes, while others escaped in an elevator cage which the operator ran to the upper floors despite the fire.

Howard Becomes Special Graft Prosecutor

Former Congressman William Schley Howard Monday became a special assistant to Solicitor-General John A. Boykin in prosecuting the present investigation in alleged wholesale graft and corruption in the administration of the municipal government. Mr. Howard is shown here taking the oath of his new office in the chambers of Superior Judge E. D. Thomas, sitting at his desk. Solicitor-General Boykin, in the center, vividly shows the elation that came to him with his new assistant.

W. B. CUMMINGS DIES AT HOSPITAL

Widely Known Atlantan
Was Fire Chief From 1906 to 1915.

William Bacon Cummings, 71, of 394 St. Clair avenue, N. E., former chief of the Atlanta fire department, and, according to his former associates, the "best fireman Atlanta ever had," died Monday night at a private hospital.

Born in Aiken, S. C., Mr. Cummings came to Atlanta at the age of 17 years and soon became connected with the old volunteer fire department. When the organization of the present department was perfected in 1882 he was made assistant chief. Meriting rapid promotion through the faithful performance of his duties, Mr. Cummings was made chief of the department on December 1, 1906. He continued as chief until July, 1915, when he was succeeded by the late William B. Cody, who served as chief until a few months ago.

Mr. Cummings was a member of the Atlanta delegation which made a goodwill tour of the United States and Canada of years ago to dedicate the tomb of the Federal army leader, General Ulysses S. Grant.

The former chief married Miss Eva Esther Woodward, daughter of the late Dr. James Harrison Woodward, of Loganport, Ind., the ceremony being performed by General Clement A. Evans, who at that time was pastor of the First Methodist church. Mr. Cummings joined the Baptist church in South Carolina during his early boyhood.

After leaving the department Mr. Cummings served for some years as United States district fire marshal, but he had not been active for several years before his death.

His fraternal connections were with the Masonic order and the Elk society, and he also was a member of the Old Guard.

Chief John Terrell, paying a high tribute to the sterling qualities of the former chief of his department, said Monday night that arrangements likely would be completed sometime today for the department's participation in the funeral services. The body is at the chapel of Ed Bond & Condon Company, and arrangements will be announced later.

Tenth Meningitis Victim in Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 10.—(AP) Spinal meningitis took its tenth victim of the year here today and health authorities issued warnings to prevent spread of the disease.

Mayor Watkins Overton, Dr. L. M. Graves, city health officer; J. F. Ward, superintendent of the city health department, and several physicians met and urged parents to call doctors when their children became ill.

Divergent Views Taken in Council For First Time

Divergent views concerning operation of the council of Greater Atlanta entered that body for the first time Monday afternoon at its second session since organization in January, when Harry Poole, of Poole's district, failed to force passage of a resolution calling on members of Fulton county commission to pave Wilton drive.

Mr. Poole is chairman of the roads and streets committee of the council, and submitted a resolution asking the commission to begin work on paving the one-and-a-half-mile stretch at once. He at first succeeded in having it passed, but later the council voted to reconsider the matter and to lie on the table for another month.

George Taylor, of Blackhall district, led the fight for reconsideration. City Attorney James L. Mayson submitted a list of rules for operation of the council and they will be acted upon at the next meeting, slated for March 10.

All papers coming before the council, under one of the rules, will be laid over until the next meeting in order that they may have careful consideration. There were 13 members of the council present.

Other routine matters were discussed but no action taken.

Bank Investigation Ordered by House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A sweeping congressional investigation of branch and chain banking, to be undertaken by the house banking committee, was ordered today by the house. The committee will meet next week to map out its program for the inquiry.

The investigation, already approved by the administration, will seek to ascertain whether chain and branch banks have encroached upon the small individual banks. The banking committee so far has been unable to obtain information necessary to formulate legislation to govern branch and chain banking because certain bankers requested to appear had declined to furnish it. Under the resolution adopted by the house the committee has authority to summon witnesses and files.

In his speech on the floor Chairman McFadden, of the committee, charged the federal reserve system was being used by the J. P. Morgan Company in organizing the international bank of settlements.

U. S. Clinic Completes 14,000-Mile Air Tour

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Three members of America's first flying clinic returned to the United States today after covering more than 14,000 miles and visiting 11 Central and South American countries. The remaining physicians will return tomorrow after an all-night stop in Havana, Cuba.

U-BOAT ABOLITION IS PARLEY TOPIC

U. S., England Advocate;
France, Japan Oppose;
U. S. Seeks Battleship.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(UN)—The five powers laid aside the question of battleships tonight to center on submarines.

There were prospects of a grim debate at tomorrow's plenary session, and an eventual agreement to "humanize" submarine warfare so that disasters like the sinking of the Lusitania may never occur again.

The Americans and British were preparing to argue for outright abolition of submarines, with the French and Japanese stoutly resisting.

Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson worked far into the night on the draft of his speech, which it was understood would set forth emphatically the United States' desire to eliminate submarine warfare.

Although Stimson refused to deny or affirm, it was learned from another source that the American delegation had definitely proposed to Britain and Japan the right of the United States to replace one of its old battleships, like the Arkansas, with a super-battleship like the British Rodney, in order to achieve capital ship parity with England.

This was the first indication that any of the three large powers had leanings toward new battleship construction in the next five years. The Americans believe the establishment of a 15-ship parity with Britain now, as proposed, would give the latter a distinct advantage in modernity of battleships, and they propose the Arkansas-Rodney arrangement to reduce the disparity.

The French put the finishing touches on their proposal to restrict but not abolish under-sea craft. A British spokesman informed the United Nations that the Paris delegation would submit an entirely new text to replace the Root treaty of 1922 regulating submarines, which France never ratified. The English and Americans, not expecting to achieve abolition of "subs," were expected to revive the Root treaty with little or no change.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—(UN)—A $50,000,000 bootleg liquor ring, described by the government as the largest to quench illicit thirsts of Americans since the advent of prohibition, was uncovered here today when a federal grand jury indicted 31 corporations and 156 individuals.

In Philadelphia, three officials of the Glenwood Distilling Company, three former federal prohibition agents, four Pennsylvania railroad employees and a "mystery man" were indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring illegally to divert 115,000 gallons of alcohol valued at $1,000,000.

Operations of the ring against which indictments were returned here centered in Chicago and extended from coast to coast, the government charged.

7,000,000 Gallons.
The indictment cited law violations in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Los Angeles and North Bergen, N. J.

More than 7,000,000 gallons of alcohol, said the government, was diverted into the speakeasy and the "bottled in bond" traffic during the last seven years with total business of the conspirators running from $50,000,000 to $80,000,000.

In Springfield, Ill., indictments were returned simultaneously against the Corn Products Refining Company and the Fleischmann Yeast Company, nationally known food concerns, while in Philadelphia a group of distillers and former prohibition agents were indicted on charges of diverting $1,000,000 worth of alcohol there.

Specific charges were suppressed in the Springfield indictments. United States District Attorney Walter Provine said the indictments were the first of their kind and that they would be pushed as test cases.

Mysterious Bulgarian.
The accusation named only the companies and did not involve any individual officers. Provine said a $10,000 fine was provided in case of conviction.

The Corn Products Company manufactures syrup while the Fleischmann company produces yeast. Both are used in the manufacture of beer. The name of Anastas Sreben, mysterious Bulgarian chemist, who

CITY HALL REMOVAL PROGRAM EXPEDITED

Council Likely To Be Asked To Accept Building Before Completion.

Probability that the council of the borough of Atlanta will be asked to accept the new $1,000,000 Atlanta city hall with certain exceptions loomed Monday, when G. Lloyd Preacher, architect, declared he would recommend such a course in order to expedite occupation of the building. Acceptance will be asked at a meeting to be held next Monday.

At the same time Pat Hendricks, city electrician, submitted to Mayor I. N. Ragsdale at the latter's residence, a report of electrical inspections in accordance with a resolution passed February 10 by council.

Contents of the report were withheld by the mayor and Mrs. Hendricks, continued to discuss the matter at all stating any announcement or publication of his findings must come from the electric lights committee of council, which is headed by Councilman W. C. Jenkins, or from the mayor.

Mr. Preacher also announced that electrical fixtures for the top floors of the city hall have arrived and that work of installing them can be begun at once. Some of them have not yet come, but they are expected before the others can be installed.

Councilman Howard C. McCutcheon, chairman of the city hall committee, will call his committee together just as soon as the report of the electrical inspections is filed formally with his committee, and it is expected that that body will recommend acceptance of the building with the exceptions noted in order that the seat of the local government can be shifted to the new structure before March 1.

"Corrections in electrical and other work can be completed, we believe, within a week," Mr. Preacher said. "It seems that lights could be placed in the entire building before February 22, the tentative date set for the moving."

Work of refinishing council chamber and other furniture is now under way and it is expected the major part of it will have been completed before the moving takes place.

Coolidge Visitor at Silver Springs

OCALA, Fla., Feb. 10.—Former President Coolidge today visited Silver Springs and viewed the underwater life there through the glass bottom of a boat.

Mr. Coolidge was enthused over the fish and turtles and climbed down into a glass well which is used for making motion pictures of the life beneath the water.

He smiled broadly several times as a negro guide recounted history and tradition of the springs.

Mr. Coolidge said he would leave Florida sometime next week for the east. He went back to his vacation home at Mount Dora tonight.

Paramount Increases Rate on Dividends

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Directors of the Paramount-Pamous Lasky Corporation today increased the annual dividend rate from $3 to $4 by declaring a quarterly distribution of $1 a share, payable March 28, to stock of record March 7. Directors also voted to ask stockholders at the annual meeting April 15, to increase the total authorized capital stock from 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 shares, and to approve a change in the corporate title of the company to Paramount-Public Corporation.

Boy Shoots Father To Protect Mother

ASHLAND, Ohio, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Leslie Cale, 16, Polk high school sophomore, was in jail here today, while his father, William Cale, 41, lay in a hospital with four revolver wounds.

Police said the boy fired the shots when his father attacked the boy's mother during a quarrel. An emergency operation was performed at the hospital and the man was expected to recover.

The elder Cale, before the operation, told H. E. Coulbertson, prosecuting manager, he did not want the boy prosecuted. No charges were filed.

tinguished company of local railroad officials, bankers and professional men.

At the luncheon were Preston S. Arkwright, newly elected director, and Robert E. Maddox, who has been on the directorate of the Seaboard for many years. After a sparkling talk from Mr. Coverdale, Mayor Ragsdale, Messrs. Arkwright and Maddox, S. P. Stringfellow, assistant traffic manager, and Fred Geyser, passenger agent, made brief responses to introductions.

Getting Financial Foothold.

The Seaboard, Mr. Coverdale said, is just beginning to get a financial foothold and would be in a bad position to consider seriously the merger with the Wabash, or any other line, recently proposed by the interstate commerce commission.

"Our road," he said, "has been badly in debt for years. Recently, however, a successful plan of re-financing was evolved which brought us $20,000,000 in cash, a good portion of which is for improvements. Something like $17,000,000 of debts have been recently retired also."

"The Seaboard is a $300,000,000 corporation, with a gross annual revenue of $60,000,000. It now has over 4,500 miles of track, about 40 per cent of which is in Florida. During the past decade it has almost doubled itself in revenue and trackage."

Much of the recent refinancing of the road was accomplished by southern capital, money being invested in its securities without prejudice to outstanding stocks and indentures, from Richmond, Charlotte, Atlanta, Birmingham and as far west as Little Rock.

In inaugurating a new policy of selling the Seaboard to the country, Mr. Powell, one of the youngest railroad heads in the country, explained, "we have added to our board of directors in various sections men like Mr. Maddox and Mr. Arkwright. In Birmingham we have Oscar Wells, a leading banker, and E. A. Yates, vice president and general manager of the Alabama Power Company. In Charlotte we have added Robert Lassiter, who has extensive cotton mill holdings, to the board."

Both officials outlined the object of the trip through southern territory as one designed to establish contacts for Mr. Coverdale and to study the needs of the road for contemplated improvements. They were in Richmond Friday, Charlotte Saturday, Atlanta Sunday and Monday, and will be in Birmingham today, and Montgomery Wednesday. After completing the trip they will return to New York city.

Mr. Coverdale, in addition to having recently acquired heavy Southeastern interests, is one of the outstanding figures in the steel world. He is also senior member of the firm of Coverdale & Colpitts, nationally known consulting engineers, president of the Gulf States Steel and Canadian Steamship companies and a large holder of southwestern oil investments.

EATON GETS CONTROL OF BIRMINGHAM UNIT.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Control of the $25,000,000 Gulf States Steel Company, second largest steel producer in the south, has been acquired by the Cyrus Eaton interests of Cleveland, it was learned authoritatively today, and the company eventually will be included in the recently organized Republic Steel Corporation.

William H. Coverdale, who has been president of the company, since his firm of Coverdale & Colpitts, engineers, took over the management contract, a few years ago, will retire as executive head of the company, and will be succeeded by some member of the Republic Steel organization. This action was decided upon after a series of conferences here last week between Mr. Eaton and Gulf State officials.

Upon the completion of the merger of the Republic Steel, Central Alloy Steel, Donner Steel and the Bourns Fuller Company into the Republic Steel Corporation, it is understood that the new corporation will make overtures for an exchange of its stock for that of the Gulf States Company. Mr. Eaton and his associates are understood to have been acquiring Gulf States stock in the open market since last summer but the extent of their holdings is not known, although it is understood that they have "working" if not actual control of the Gulf company.

Coverdale & Colpitts' interest in Gulf States Steel has been secondary to their interest in the Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia Railway, which they reorganized. When Mr. Coverdale assumed presidency of the Gulf States Company under the terms of the management contract, it was understood that such arrangement was only a temporary one.

The Republic Steel Company took over the Pioneer Mining & Manufacturing Company, Alabama Rolling Mill Company and Birmingham Rolling Mill Company, all in Birmingham, in 1904, and two years later, with the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co., purchased the Potter Ore Properties, consisting of 1,800 acres of iron ore lands near Birmingham, each company taking over half of the lands by lease. These properties will be consolidated with the Gulf States properties under the present plans of the Eaton interests.

T. M. Girdler, who recently was named chairman of the board of directors of the new Republic Steel Corporation, formerly was associated with the Gulf States Steel Company. Addition of the Gulf States properties into the Republic combination will increase the input capacity of the latter to more than 5,000,000 tons yearly but will not change its relative relationship with other leading producers as to size, still being outranked by the United States and Bethlehem Steel Corporations.

BETTER HEALTH for less money...

NUTRITION experts agree that pure whole milk is the most healthful food that money can buy—because it contains in abundance nearly every element that the body needs for growth and energy. Only large quantities of cereals, meats, vegetables and fruits would have the same amount and completeness of nourishment that is in delicious Foremost milk.

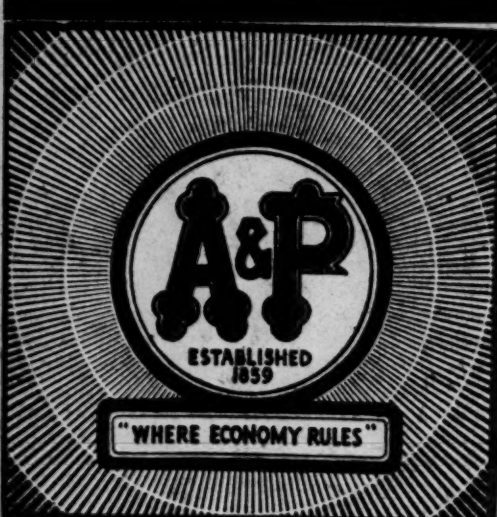

For example, there is as much calcium, or lime—the precious mineral that builds hard bones and strong teeth—in 2½ glasses of Foremost milk as in 100 slices of bread!

All the other health-building elements—fats, proteins, vitamins and minerals—are also richly present in Foremost. If you give your child a quart a day, he will want and need smaller amounts of other, more costly, foods.

Well-cared-for, well-fed cows produce Foremost milk. It is tested for quality and purity in a spotless, modern dairy under the supervision of dairymen experts. Start now to order this economical, necessary food, so essential to the health of your family. Sold by grocers and druggists.

Foes Seeking To Oust Davis From Elk Post

Quo warranto proceedings, seeking to oust Ben J. Davis, former negro committeeman for Georgia of the Republican party, and other newly-elected officers of Gate City lodge, No. 54, of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, a negro organization, have been filed in Fulton superior court by Frank L. Jones, who has been secretary of the lodge for 10 years. The plaintiff contends that Davis' election as a trustee was illegal. Jones charged in his petition that the new officers, headed by P. E. Williams as exalted ruler, were elected illegally at a meeting presided over by Dr. L. M. Hull as district deputy, while under suspension from the lodge. The petition claims that 10 of the 63 votes cast, the 10 being the deciding number, were illegal because the members were in arrears for dues. Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy set the petition for a hearing on February 15. Davis was exalted ruler up to the contested election of December 4.

WOUNDED DETECTIVE IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Grady Wyatt, Also Wounded in Encounter With Blackwell, Is in Jail.

Harold Blackwell, house detective at the Henry Grady hotel, who was wounded early Monday morning in an encounter with Grady Wyatt, of Vidalia, was reported "doing fairly well" at the hospital, where physicians say his condition is dangerous.

Wyatt, who also was wounded in the encounter, during which he and the detective were struggling for the officer's pistol, is at police headquarters, his wounded thigh dressed. He was arrested several hours after the shooting at Fort McPherson. No charge has been filed against him, the police announcing they are awaiting the outcome of Blackwell's wounds. The Vidalia youth said he came here Sunday to join the army and went to Fort McPherson to visit friends who already are in the service. He came downtown, he said, with a soldier friend, J. Waller, whose home also is at Vidalia.

Wyatt and Waller became separated during the evening and the former returned to the hotel alone, where Waller previously had registered. Waller had his clothing and $50 of his money in his suitcase at the hotel.

Wyatt claimed. When he entered the room, Wyatt claims his money was missing and made a complaint to the office, where he was referred to Blackwell.

The house detective and Wyatt engaged in an argument and Wyatt fled, Blackwell in pursuit. The detective caught his quarry at the alley intersection of Cain street between Peachtree and Spring streets and there the two engaged in a scuffle during which the detective's pistol was discharged several times and both men wounded, the detective seriously and Wyatt slightly. Blackwell was taken to Grady hospital.

Wyatt fled to Fort McPherson where he reported to the guardhouse. On arrival there he is said to have had Blackwell's pistol in his possession. Guards on duty at the army post notified the police of Wyatt's presence and he was arrested there by a squad sent from police headquarters.

Blackwell was removed early Monday night to a private hospital where his early recovery was predicted.

Two damage suits, aggregating $90,000, were filed Monday in Fulton superior court against T. H. Kendall and the All-Star Manufacturing Company as the result of an automobile collision July 22 near Cullman, Ala. The plaintiffs are Herman Teichmiller, who asks $40,000 for alleged permanent injury, and Mrs. Elizabeth Handley, administrator of the estate of the late Reuben H. Handley, her husband. Mrs. Handley seeks $50,000. The plaintiffs allege that an automobile driven by Kendall, an employee of the All-Star Manufacturing Company, ran into an automobile occupied by Teichmiller and Handley, and that Kendall was driving to the left of the center of the road. POKER DEBT BLAMED IN MEMPHIS KILLING Wife Denies Ex-Husband Killed Husband in Jealous Rage.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 10.—(AP)—An unpaid poker debt of $15 caused the quarrel that led to the fatal wounding of John Temple, 32, by Joe Grooms, 28, the widow of the slain man and former wife of Grooms told newspapermen today.

Mrs. Temple vigorously denied that jealousy had anything to do with the differences between the men. The shooting occurred late yesterday. When the men chance to meet, a fight followed and Temple was shot six times. Grooms surrendered to police.

Mrs. Temple married the man killed last December, three months after she had obtained a divorce from Grooms. "It's a lie," she said today denying that jealousy figured in the encounter. "Joe never loved me. I hated him and Mr. Temple knew it."

Temple, she said, lost the money to Grooms in a poker game and Grooms had come to their home several times in unsuccessful efforts to collect the money.

Announcement was made that attorneys for Grooms would enter a plea of self-defense.

WOMAN DENIES GUILT IN HUSBAND'S DEATH

Bertie Gentry Maintains Innocence in Alleged Murder Insurance Plot.

EL DORADO, Ark., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Continued investigation today into an alleged plot of a wife and her parents to poison a young husband and collect his insurance resulted in release of the wife's father on his own recognition to appear at a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Luke Pridgen, 55, the father, was released but persistent grilling by police was continued of Mrs. Bertie Gentry, comely blonde, wife of the man alleged to have been poisoned, and her mother, Mrs. Pridgen, 65.

A preliminary hearing for the trio was scheduled for today but both state and defense attorneys announced they were not ready and it was postponed until tomorrow.

Officers admitted they had little evidence upon which to hold Pridgen, who is charged with accessory to the alleged crime. Mrs. Gentry and Mrs. Pridgen are charged with first degree murder.

The two women, the elder rather shabbily dressed and the younger smartly attired, have been subjected to almost continuous grilling since their arrest, immediately after State Chemist Mangelsdorf had reported to Union county officers that the vital organs of James E. Gentry, 24, showed traces of poison.

Investigators have not been able to ascertain exactly how much insurance Gentry carried at the time of his death. They believe, however, he had several policies. Officers said they had learned Mrs. Gentry destroyed two policies after her husband's death, fearing to make an attempt to collect them.

ROAD BOARD TO NAME ENGINEERS THIS WEEK

Announcement of Six Division Heads Is Expected Thursday.

Names of the six engineers who will be in charge of the newly reorganized highway divisions probably will be announced Thursday following a meeting of the state highway board, it was learned Monday after a conference between Colonel Sam Tate, highway director, and B. P. McWhorter, acting engineer.

Colonel Tate said he wished to confer with John B. Phillips and W. C. Vereen, the other members of the board, before making an announcement.

The board announced several days ago that the number of divisions would be cut from nine to six, and that of present headquarters corps only two would be retained in the reorganized system.

HER GRATITUDE TO SARGON IS BEYOND WORDS, SHE SAYS

Nervousness, Pains in Back and Other Troubles Yield to Its Powers, Says Atlanta Woman.

"I can never repay my debt of gratitude to this wonderful Sargon."

"When I began taking Sargon I was in such a weak, run-down condition I couldn't even attend to my household duties. I was so nervous I couldn't get much restful sleep, and I'd lost a great deal of weight. I had no appetite—just the thought of food nauseated me, and whatever I did manage to force down would give me old-time cramp colic, the terrible pains almost bending me double. My back ached continually and in the mornings my knees and all the joints of my body were so stiff it was hard for me to get around. My liver never functioned properly and I'd have splitting headaches and dizzy spells. I'd tried many kinds of medicines but nothing gave me real relief."

MRS. JAMES W. LEE.

"Almost from the first dose I began to get better. My appetite came back and now everything agrees with me, and I never have a touch of that old cramp colic. Those terrible backaches and the sharp pains around my kidneys are gone. The stiffness in my knees and throughout my body is so much better that I move about with ease, and my nerves are so steady that I sleep throughout the night. I have gained back six pounds of my lost weight, and more than that in strength, and I can attend to my household duties without any trouble at all."

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills, which I took right along with the tonic, have stimulated my liver so that I'm not bilious any more and I never have those splitting headaches or dizzy spells. They also relieved me entirely of constipation."

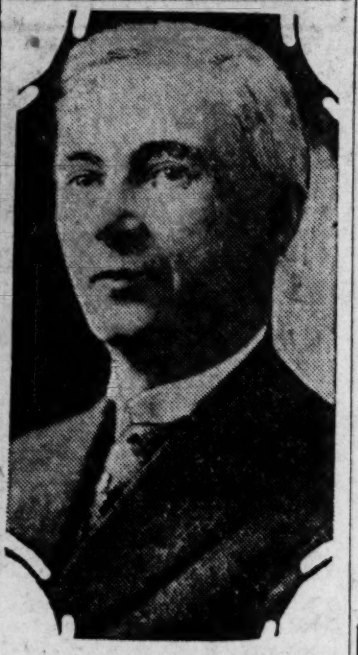

"My general condition is so wonderfully improved that I never miss the opportunity to recommend Sargon to any one suffering as I was."

The above endorsement of Sargon, the new and different medicine, was given by Mrs. James W. Lee, 754 Park St., S. W., Atlanta. Mrs. Lee is a prominent member of the West End Baptist church and has a host of friends.

Go to Jacobs' Main Store, 48 North Broad St., Grant Bldg., and meet the Sargon Man. He will give you the astonishing facts about this wonderful new medicine which is accomplishing such remarkable results all over the country. The astonishing record of Sargon is based on actual results accomplished, not empty promises. Sargon may be obtained at all Jacobs' Drug Stores throughout Atlanta.—(adv.)

Georgia Baptists To Gather Today On Mission Plans

Baptists from every section of Georgia will gather at Druid Hills church at 10 o'clock this morning for a discussion of the 1930 co-operative program of missions, benevolence and education of the Georgia Baptist convention. Dr. Louie D. Newton, chairman of the committee in charge of this work, will preside.

Representatives from the 70-odd district associations throughout the state are expected to be present with reports of their respective associations. Plans for a series of regional conferences will be perfected today. These conferences will be held in 16 strategic centers throughout the state. Another feature of today's session will be the discussion of the "God's acre" movement. This plan is suggested to farmers throughout the state to plant at least one acre of their 1930 crop for the Lord, giving the entire proceeds to some phase of missionary work. Last year this plan was tried in a number of communities throughout the state with gratifying results. Dr. J. Phil Campbell of the State College of Agriculture will discuss this plan at the meeting today.

The meeting will close with an address by Dr. Frederick A. Agar, New York city. He will speak at 12 o'clock. He is the stewardship secretary of the Northern Baptist convention and has devoted his life to a study of Christian stewardship. He is widely known as an author and public speaker. He reached the city this morning and is stopping at the Biltmore.

Dr. Agar will speak again at Druid Hills at 7:30 o'clock tonight. His address this evening was his original engagement for Atlanta today. When it was found that he would be here for the address at Druid Hills church, the state meeting was planned for today so that he might also speak to that meeting at noon.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Agar both at noon and tonight. He will leave Wednesday for New York city.

Man Gets 10 Months For Liquor Violation

A sentence of 10 months on the chain gang was assessed M. A. Waite, 42, Monday by Judge Jesse M. Wood, while Mrs. W. L. C. Goins, 32, was placed on probation for 10 months. Waite and Mrs. Goins were charged with possession of a small quantity of whiskey at 327 Blue Ridge court on February 8. Mrs. Goins is the mother of six small children, it was said in court. Officers said that they caught her in the act of pouring whiskey into the sink, and that Waite, who said he was a boarder, claimed the whiskey. Waite told Judge Wood that he claimed the whiskey to shield Mrs. Goins, but learned later that the whiskey had been placed in the home by someone else.

The officers told Judge Wood that when arrested, Waite told them that he had had a couple of gallons of whiskey delivered a short time before. During their brief stay in the house, several telephone calls for whiskey were received, the parties asking for "Mike," which is Waite's first name, Judge Wood was told.

All citizens who have paid their 1928 taxes are eligible to register and vote in the March 19 primary. Those taken off the list last year may register again and vote in the primary by paying 1928 taxes and the taxes due prior to that date, on or before February 17, he said.

Hardegree Murder Trial To Be Opened Here Today

Former Cigar Maker Is Charged With Murder of Prof. A. H. Johnson in Atlanta Last June.

Charged with the murder of Professor Alexander Hamilton Johnson, of Hartwell, a visitor to the convention of the National Education Association here last June, Edward L. Hardegree, war veteran and cigar-maker, will go on trial today before a jury in Judge Virgil B. Moore's division of the superior court. Selection of the jury is to begin at 9 o'clock.

The trial of Hardegree is one of the few ever held here in which a man went before a jury and the state had not announced what it intended to prove as a motive for the slaying, though the defense has made it known definitely that the ex-soldier will plead that he struck Johnson in self-defense.

Detective John W. Lowe, who headed the police investigation of Johnson slaying and who was assigned to check Hardegree's confession to a reporter for The Constitution which led to his arrest, is expected to be the state's most important witnesses, his appearance on the stand to be augmented by the testimony of a number of persons who saw Hardegree in company with Johnson on the night of the slaying.

The defense is expected to rely entirely on the statement of Hardegree, that he struck in self-defense and challenge the state to disprove it by injecting another motive for the slaying. Hardegree is to be represented by Attorneys Finch and McKee. Johnson's body was found slumped over the wheel of his parked motor car in the 700 block on Angier avenue on the morning of June 30, following his arrival from Hartwell Saturday night. For some time the slaying was a deep mystery, though one J. W. Wike, an Eatonton carpenter and odd-job man, had been arrested and was under indictment for the murder. Since Hardegree's arrest, Wike has been freed on bond of $5,000, which he was permitted to sign himself.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR DR. DURHAM

ministry, entering Duke University, then Trinity College, in 1899, graduating four years later. He was ordained as a minister in 1903 but did not accept a pastorate until 1907 when he went to Concord. Later he served the First Methodist church as pastor and from 1911 until 1913 he was presiding elder in the western North Carolina conference, with headquarters at Charlotte. In 1913, Trinity College conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity.

A man of extraordinary eloquence, Dr. Durham was in great demand as a public speaker. His last appearance was at Morehouse College Sunday afternoon where he spoke in connection with the presentation of the Harman award to Dr. John Hope, president of that institution. He was particularly in demand as a public speaker on patriotic occasions and at gatherings of liberal groups.

His education, beginning at Trinity college in the early days of that institution's expansion through the philanthropy of the Dukes, especially fitted him for the work he began when he accepted the deanship at Emory in 1914. He studied, after four years at Trinity, at Yale theological school for two years and graduated from the Union Theological Seminary, New York, in 1899. In 1901 and 1902 he was a student at Christ Church college, New York city. Afterwards he taught at Trinity until 1907 when he entered the ministry.

Foremost Religious Scholar.

As an authority upon church history, Dr. Durham had been for years recognized as among the foremost scholars in the nation. His interest in history did not end with religious matters for he was a close student of secular affairs, holding a wide grasp of world conditions and problems.

Particularly attracted by southern history, he made a meticulous study of the life of Robert E. Lee and his addresses upon the life of the southern hero attracted wide notice in the entire country. One of his notable services to Atlanta and the south was guiding a special committee which he headed in adjusting misunderstandings which temporarily halted work upon the Stone Mountain memorial sometime ago.

During the war he was commissioned as a lieutenant in the North Carolina national guard and, apart from his military service, espoused every many platforms urging some support of the country's armed forces. Since the war, he has made many Armistice Day speeches in various sections.

Founded Christian Council, of Atlanta, and was a moving spirit in the operation of many similar organizations designed to harmonize civic affairs with moral interests. Dr. Durham is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lucy Cole, of Raleigh, N. C.; a small daughter, Lucy Cole Durham; three brothers, Stonewall and Robert L. Durham and Wright P. Dixon; a sister, Mrs. W. L. Balthin, of Gastonia, and his mother, Mrs. B. F. Dixon. Another brother, Ben Franklin Dixon, was killed in the World War.

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of the Atlanta public schools, in a tribute to Dr. Durham Monday spoke of him as "one of the finest men Atlanta has ever produced." News of his sudden death was a great shock, he said.

"No man has ever lived in Atlanta whose interests ever expressed themselves in so many ways as did Dr. Durham," he said. "He was the most loyal of friends. His work in interracial relations not only gave us peace between races in Atlanta, but did much to further understanding between races throughout the world."

Dr. Harvey Cox, president of Emory, paid the following tribute: "Dr. Durham was one of the most widely known members of the Emory faculty. He was justly famed as a minister of the gospel and as an

Treasury Bill Bids Will Close Feb. 14

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Secretary Mellon announced today the treasury will receive bids for treasury bills to the amount of approximately $50,000,000 up to 2 o'clock on the afternoon of February 14.

It will be the second time the treasury has resorted to the newly authorized treasury bills to raise funds to provide money for government operations. The bids, the secretary said, would be examined as soon as possible after the closing hour, probably the following morning.

The bills will be dated February 18 and will mature on May 10. They do not bear interest but are sold at a discount to the highest bidder.

Tower Found.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A Jerusalem dispatch to the London Daily Express today stated that Professor Garstang, who is leading Sir Charles Marston's expedition to excavate the ruins of the ancient city of Jericho, reported the discovery of the tower of that city. According to the dispatch it is a citadel which has been partly cleared and resembles the defensive towers of the Canaanite city. It is built of brick walls 12 feet thick, rising 27 feet above the foundation. Professor Garstang believed that the tower was erected about 2000 B. C.

orator, but the work which he did as professor of church history, in training hundreds of young men who have gone out from the Candler school of theology will stand out in later years as his greatest gift to his generation and to posterity.

Scholarly, spiritual and of magnetic personality, Dr. Durham was the ideal teacher for a university of Christian ideals. We are so stunned by his sudden death that we can hardly realize the extent of the loss which we have suffered.

Mrs. Harris Rites Set for Wednesday

The body of Mrs. Richard A. Harris, former Atlantan, who died Sunday at her Riverside drive residence, New York city, is expected to arrive here today.

Born in Jones county, near Macon, Mrs. Harris was educated at Mercer university and Ward-Belmont college, Nashville. She was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Funeral rites will be held at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at Peachtree Christian church with the Rev. J. Spole Lyons officiating. Burial will be in West View cemetery.

LAMONT SAYS SURVEY INDICATES NORMALCY

Secretary Sees Average or Better for Business.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—An approximately normal level in the production and distribution of commodities in the United States for this season was announced today by Secretary Lamont after study of business survey data received at the department of commerce.

He asserted also a conviction that the unemployment situation was more favorable than might have been expected in view of the stock market slump last fall.

"It is to be remembered January and February represent rather low periods in the calendar schedule of American business," Secretary Lamont said. "They are stock taking periods for most large corporations and are not the months in which enterprises are usually extended."

"However, we are having pretty good reports from constructions and from productions generally, and there is ground for assuming that this is about the normal year."

"One of the difficulties in the way of general realization of that fact is that our statistics as to business now coming out have to be compared with 1929 conditions and it is obvious that 1929 presented the picture of abnormally stimulated industry in almost every line."

SLAYING OF HARTLEY'S CHARGED TO NEGRO

Albert Johnson Held When Bloodstains Are Found on Overalls.

MACON, Ga., Feb. 10.—(P)—A formal charge of murder today was lodged against Albert Johnson, 30, negro, by Sheriff George Anderson, of Peach county, in connection with the slaying to death on January 23 of Mr. and Mrs. Green Hartley, aged farm couple of near Fort Valley.

The charge followed a report from Dr. George F. Klugh, Atlanta chemist, that bloodstains found on overalls, which the sheriff said Johnson admitted owning, were "unmistakably human." Johnson, however, denies all knowledge of the slaying and says his overalls, found near the Hartley home, were stained in outwearing hogs.

Johnson will be held in the Bibb county jail here for safe keeping pending action by the Peach county grand jury next month. According to sheriff, Johnson has admitted that he recently escaped from an Upson county chain gang after serving a small part of a 12-month sentence for establishing two county policemen.

The motive for killing the Hartleys is believed to have been robbery as they were reported to have carried a large sum of money concealed in their home.

Two other negroes, "Son" Straughter and Armeted Lawson, are being held on suspicion.

A rather stiff breeze gave the atmosphere a twinge of chilliness here Monday as the mercury mounted from 40 to 49. The same minimum figure is expected for this morning but a top reading of 60 for the day is forecast.

Mr. von Hermann states that a solid seven-day period without precipitation at this time of the year is "most unusual."

Roads Keep Business Stabilized, Clift Says

The railroads are the shock absorbers of the nation's business, is the assertion of President A. E. Clift, of the Central of Georgia in a statement published Monday.

"The railroads are an important factor in keeping business on an even keel," Mr. Clift said. "The increased speed and dependability of freight transportation have made it possible within the last six years to greatly cut down inventories. It is no longer necessary to tie up capital by dead investment in large stocks. This means less interest charges, less insurance premiums, and quicker turnover. Commerce has been speeded up, and the cost of doing business has been reduced."

"The railroads, in addition to carrying the country's commerce, are large purchasers of materials and supplies, as well as large employers of labor. They are going ahead with programs of improvement during 1930. They are the shock absorbers of the nation."

Mr. Clift stated that the first weeks of 1930 have recorded improvement in business conditions that should strengthen confidence in the economic stability of both the United States as a whole and the southeast as a section.

Capt. E. G. Higginson Buried at Macon

MACON, Ga., Feb. 10.—Taps were sounded for Captain E. Gibson Higginson, former commander of the Macon Hussars, late this afternoon as the body of the World War veteran was lowered, with full military honors, into a grave in Rose Hill cemetery. The funeral procession was met at the gates of the cemetery by the 121st infantry band, a firing squad from the Macon Hussars and buglers. Honorary escort from both the Hussars and the local post of the American Legion were also present.

As the band played, the procession wound to the cemetery plot. The firing squad sounded three volleys over the grave. The traditional taps ended the service, which was begun at the Cherokee Heights Methodist church.

At the church, which was crowded with wartime comrades and friends of Captain Higginson, scores of floral wreaths had been placed over the altar. Rev. J. E. Parker, pastor, read the service and added a few words of tribute to the former officer.

Perhaps the early death of Captain Higginson could be traced to participation overseas in the war, the pastor said. He died of pneumonia last Saturday at Quitman, Ga.

YOUTHFULNESS and BEAUTY are dependent upon a strong body—firm flesh—a clear skin

Loss of strength, flabby flesh and skin eruptions are but a few of the symptoms of a deeper and more dangerous trouble—a lack of the normal count of red-cells in the blood.

NOTHING is more beautiful, more inspiring, more glorified than the supreme manifestation of Nature in the human body. Those sparkling eyes, that clear skin, that firm flesh, and that vigor of action denoting vitality, bespeak loveliness and internal healthfulness.

And so, is it not our birthright to be masters over our own bodies? To be sure not much is said openly about personal handicaps—skin blemishes—sallow complexion—poor health—but secretly they influence many important affairs.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin blemishes, lack of appetite, flabby flesh and loss of energy as an indication that the body's power of resistance is low—that there is a deficiency of red-blood-cells.

When you build back your red-cells to the correct number you will have followed Nature's own way of regaining Health. Your skin should clear up and you should have the body strength to fight against disease and infection. You should get hungry again and sleep soundly. Firm flesh should take the place of that which was once flabby. You should feel strong; your nerves become steady.

This is why so many thousands, seeking youthfulness and beauty, have taken a course of S.S.S. It helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Without plenty of rich, red-blood-cells there would be no strong, sturdy, powerful men or beautiful, healthy women.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping people regain and retain their strength and charm. It promotes constructive metabolism (healthy body building). It increases the number of red-blood-cells. S.S.S. is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and is easily assimilated. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. Take S.S.S. at mealtime. You will be delighted with its blood-building and tonic effects. All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

How can I carry funds without risk of loss while traveling?

The why of a clear skin

A clear, smooth, lovely skin speaks of rich red blood within. It is Nature's outward reflection of internal healthfulness.

First impressions cannot be good without a clear skin—first impressions are quickly made and are not soon forgotten. Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize but new acquaintances may not be so charitable. Skin blemishes are not inviting. They cannot be covered up. They embarrass. Hold people back. Steal away joy and happiness.

Men and women, both, justly covet admiration and all may expect such satisfaction to its fullest extent if they are the possessors of a clear, unblemished skin.

If you are unfortunate in this respect you owe it to yourself and friends to remove the cause. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much desired.

More important still, strong healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

1 KILLED, SEVERAL HURT WHEN STRIKERS CLASH

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—(P)—One man was killed and several other persons were injured today in a clash between rival left and right wing workers in the garment district, growing out of the concentrated picketing activities of the striking International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union.

Wielding knives and sawed-off bladed axes, the two groups of men crushed a group of left wing radicals when the latter hurled taunts at them at Thirty-ninth street and Broadway.

The left wing workers are not participating in the general strike called by the union last Tuesday in a campaign against sweatshop conditions.

Eighteen persons, including 12 young women, were arrested as police reserves broke up the melee. Jacob Rothenberg, 45, a dress manufacturer, received a fractured skull when he was knocked to the pavement and died in a hospital. Irving Goldstein, 27, a chauffeur was held on a charge of homicide in Rothenberg's death.

Several others were cut about the face and hands.

Another fight occurred in Thirty-fifth street but police broke up the disturbance before any one was injured seriously.

The silhouette, "Fighting Stallions," by Joseph Cranston Jones, of Augusta, whose work has been widely exhibited here, is a recent gift to the permanent collection of the High Museum of Art, 1262 Peachtree street, of which Lewis P. Skidmore is director. This print embodies the spirited, imaginative grasp of his subject which characterizes all of his work. It is well known throughout the states, having been exhibited in most of the large cities.

Joe Jones, whose silhouettes have recently been exhibited at the High Museum, was at one time a patient at the Scottish Rite hospital. The work of this young artist has attracted wide attention here and throughout the country. The grace, fineness of artistic feeling and mastery of his medium have won for him the acclaim of critics throughout the country.

Besides the permanent collection of the museum, to which this gift adds immeasurably, a number of other exhibits are being shown at the museum. The oil paintings of Frederick Mulhaupt, of Gloucester, Mass., including principally marine scenes, are on view in the auditorium gallery of the museum. The pen and ink drawings of A. B. Junior League Jottings

BY MRS. REGINALD SCOTT FLEET, Editor

February will be a crowded month for the Junior League. Besides the usual work at the hospital and the tea room, there are the Follies and the Jacksonville conference to add spice and zest to this the shortest month.

Mrs. Rhodes Haverly, the chairman of arts and interests, has assembled for exhibition at the Jacksonville regional conference a number of very interesting items. There are five classifications for these exhibits. Under the "Theater Arts Show" classification we will have our largest exhibit, the marionettes for the play of Cinderella and the scenery. For "Arts and Crafts" a nursery wall paper design executed by Mrs. Preston Stevens, a petit point bag and hooked rug executed by Mrs. Winifrey Ramsey will be submitted. Following the requirements for arts and crafts, both Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Ramsey are presenting original designs. A black and white sketch by Miss Helena Calloway will represent us in the fine arts classification. For the welfare exhibit a poster with pictures of the work at the Henrietta Eggleston hospital and explanatory lettering has been prepared. For the garden exhibit charming photographs of the gardens of Junior League members will be presented.

All these exhibits will be judged at the regional conference, the prize winners in each group to be shown and judged at the national conference to be held in New York in April.

The Junior League Magazine for February carried a charming picture of the president of the Atlanta Junior League with the following caption: "Mrs. John S. Knox, under whose able leadership the Atlanta Junior League carries on their varied and interesting work."

We were also represented in the magazine by two charming black and white sketches by Hermoine Walker Stevens, a provisional member of the Atlanta League. Mrs. Stevens has designed a gay and effective cover for the Junior League Follies program.

For those who are asking, "What is the Junior League?" Mrs. Winthrop E. Palmer's article in the Junior League in the 14th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica will be of interest. Mrs. Palmer was a president of the Association of Junior Leagues and under her regime much of a constructive nature was accomplished.

The article is as follows: "Junior Leagues of America. The Association of Junior Leagues of America is an association for the advancement of civil welfare, organized by young women on the principles of representative government. The purpose of the league is to further the civil progress throughout its branches in the cities of the United States and Canada through the maintenance of various civic projects. The association also trains its members to co-operate in the various branches of civic work. The type of welfare work to be undertaken is left to the discretion of the individual league."

"The nucleus of the present association was the Junior League of the New York college settlement, organized by Miss Mary Lou Wilson in 1900. This was followed in 1906 by the founding of a second league in Boston, Baltimore, Brooklyn and Philadelphia having meanwhile joined the ranks of the first general conference was held in 1911. In 1920 the 39 leagues then existing were organized by Mrs. Winifrey Ramsey (Dorothy Whitney) into the present association. Six years later a national headquarters was established in New York city, and in the following year a national club of Junior League Poetry was published. In the same year the Bulletin, since 1912 the official organ, was converted into the Junior League Magazine. There were 101 leagues in the United States, representing 39 states and three additional leagues in Canada in 1928. The same year a national club with offices and exhibition rooms was established in New York city. (W. B. Pal.)"

Be sure to hear the Junior League on the radio over WSB on Wednesday from 6:30 to 7 o'clock. Hill Mandy, radio announcer, will read a program which you must not miss!

NEW FIRE PREVENTION COMMITTEE IS FORMED

Organization by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce of a permanent fire prevention committee for the study of local fire hazards and their remedies was perfected Monday afternoon at a luncheon attended by a number of representative businessmen. Chief John Terrell and Secretary Ben Carlton, of the Atlanta fire department, were present and offered complete cooperation with the committee.

The luncheon was addressed by H. L. Bond, engineer of the National Fire Prevention Association, with headquarters in Boston, with which the Chamber of Commerce has become affiliated. He explained the work which similar committees of other cities have accomplished in other cities, notably in Norfolk, where the annual fire losses were reduced by more than three-fourths within a few years.

"Atlanta has a most excellent code of ordinances covering construction and care of buildings," said Mr. Bond. "But I am told that in numerous instances these regulations have been set aside by special ordinances, rendering the laws ineffective. There is an especially hazardous condition caused by the building of the great Atlanta viaducts, which convert the former ground floors into almost inaccessible basements. The type of business to be permitted in these quarters is one to be studied most carefully if dangerous risk is to be avoided."

Fowers Pace, vice president of F. J. Coolidge & Sons, accepted the post of temporary chairman of the committee, which begins its study of the situation at once to offer such aid to the fire department and building inspectors department as it can.

"We hope to make this one of the most important undertakings of the Chamber of Commerce," stated B. S. Barker, executive vice-president, after the meeting. "Instead of one week of spasmodic activity in a 'Fire Prevention Week' campaign, we expect to work all the year round. By reducing fire hazards we can eventually reduce insurance rates."

16 Minutes a Day To Be Beautiful, Sister of Noted Beauty Culturist To Lecture at Davison-Paxon

Says Mademoiselle Stella Rubinstein

BY RUNA ERWIN.

Take 16 minutes—8 in the morning and 8 in the evening—out of the 1,440 minutes in every day to care for the complexion, and any woman's beauty is enhanced, her youthfulness is prolonged, and the delicate texture of the complexion is preserved, according to Mademoiselle Stella Rubinstein, sister and co-worker of Mademoiselle Helena Rubinstein, the world famous beauty specialist. Mademoiselle Rubinstein comes to Atlanta direct from the Paris Salon de Beaute, having arrived in America only 6 weeks ago. She is being presented this week by Davison-Paxon Company in two interesting and instructive lectures at the Davison-Paxon tea room. The first lecture will be given this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and Mademoiselle Rubinstein will speak in her vibrant and individual manner on "The American Woman versus the Parisienne." In this lecture she will tell why the American woman is the most charming in the world, and tell how she may become the most beautiful. Thursday afternoon, February 13, at 3 o'clock, she will speak on "American Make-up and Parisian 'Maquillage,'" which is the French term for the art of make-up. In this she will explain the difference between the French and American conception of the use of cosmetics, with personal demonstrations. Friday afternoon, February 14, she will speak at 3 o'clock on "The Skin."

Popular Powder of Beautiful Women

Beauties who guard their complexions use MELLO-GO Face Powder only. Famous for purity—its coloring matter is approved by the Government. The skin never looks puffy or flaky. It spreads more smoothly and produces a youthful bloom. Made by a new French process, MELLO-GO Face Powder stays on longer. Lane Drug Stores.—(adv.)

SO DIZZY, HAD TO LIE DOWN

Oklahoma Lady Says She Obtained Relief by Taking Black-Draught.

Tablequah, Okla.—"We have used Theford's Black-Draught in our family ever since I can remember," says Mrs. M. C. Weatherford, of 117 Ross Street, this city. "My mother gave it to us children. Whenever we got sick or out of order, she gave us a few doses of it to straighten us out. 'For years I have kept Theford's Black-Draught in my home. I find it the best medicine for sick headache and biliousness I have ever tried. 'Sometimes I have spells when everything seems dark before my eyes and I feel dizzy. I have to lie down or I would fall. When I feel such an attack coming on, I take Black-Draught and make a tea out of it, which I take in small doses for several days. The dizziness quickly passes off after I take Black-Draught, and I feel fine. 'I gave my little grandchild Black-Draught not long ago. She was bilious and this made her fussy and laud. I made a tea of the Black-Draught and gave it to her, and very soon she was up, playing around the house."

Sugar.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Raw sugar was unchanged today, but demand was lighter. The only sales reported were 10,000 bags of Porto Rico to an outpost refiner at 3.64; and to operators 7,000 bags of Philippines for March-April at 3.73 and 7,000 bags for April-May at 3.77. The Sugar export agency in Cuba continues to quote 3.53.

Awaiting some reference from Cuba in regard to crop restriction, operators in raw futures were inclined to limit fresh commitments and price movements were narrow in absence of any aggressive operations either way. The market opened unchanged to 1 point higher and at one time was 1 to 2 points above the previous close.

BURGESS CHIMP'S STORIES

A BLACK GHOST.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Sometimes there is a state of mind that to the truth makes people blind. —Blacky the Crow.

Two days had passed since Chatterer the Red Squirrel had discovered the black feathers beneath a tree in the Green Forest and up in that tree had seen Hooty the Owl and Mrs. Hooty. He had jumped to the conclusion that Blacky the Crow had been killed and eaten. The news had spread all through the Green Forest and the Old Orchard and over the Green Meadows. It had spread up through the Old Pasture. Almost every one had believed it. Reddy Fox had been the first to believe it. When he had heard it, Reddy Fox had said, "What is it to me? Black-coated rascal up to now?" he muttered. "I don't believe he is dead any more than I believe Hooty the Owl catches Blacky the Crow if he when he is so old that he is too feeble to fly."

But almost everybody else believed the news. And when after two days had passed with no sign or sound of Blacky, even Reddy's doubt was a little shaken. He even went over to the Green Forest and saw the black feathers around the foot of the tree in which Blacky the Crow had been. He heard Hooty snapping his bill at him from up above.

"Did you kill Blacky the Crow?" demanded Reddy.

"What business is it of yours?" retorted Reddy. "Do I ask you who you have caught?"

"It is reported everywhere that you killed and ate Blacky," said Reddy.

"Personally, I don't believe it. I don't believe you are any smarter than I."

"How about those feathers down there?" retorted Hooty.

"A few black feathers are no proof," declared Reddy. "Blacky the Crow is only a crow. It will take some one smarter than you to catch Blacky."

With this Reddy trotted on. However, he was not so sure as he pretended to be that Blacky hadn't been caught. Those black feathers around the foot of the tree where Blacky's nest was made it look very much as if it might be that Blacky really was no more.

Over in the Old Orchard Blacky's disappearance was still the chief subject of gossip. Blacky had been seen and no one had seen or heard Blacky. "That proves that it is true," declared Happy Jack Squirrel. "Can any of you remember seeing Blacky without hearing or seeing Blacky the Crow?"

All shook their heads. None of them could. Strangely enough, it didn't pop into one of those little heads that in all those three days they had neither seen nor heard any other Crow. You see, their thoughts were all of Blacky. But it was a fact that not a Crow had been seen or heard since.

"Caw, Caw, Caw!" said a harsh voice.

You should have seen those little scampers! Happy Jack Squirrel declared around the trunk of a tree. Yank-Yank the Nuthatch did the same thing. Tommy the Chickadee popped into a bird-house which WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A southern senator today assailed the nomination of Hugh M. Tate, a Tennessee republican, to be a member of the interstate commerce commission, charging that it was a violation of the law which he said required that the crowd should be kept out of the senate itself.

The appointment was made several days ago by President Hoover and is now before the senate commerce committee for approval before coming to the senate itself.

Senator Black, democrat, Alabama, raised the question in a speech on the floor of the senate, asking the senators a list of some of the clients of the law firm of which the Knoxville man is a member.

He asked that this information be referred to the committee having Tate's nomination under consideration, and said that he put it into the record to show "that this member selected to represent the senate, the commission has been selected in conflict with the law."

"Some of us feel," he added, "that out of the thousands of men in the south it is unfair to name a man who has been in the environment of the railroad, power, telephone and telegraph side of this great question."

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Reports of the masked band at North Carolina State College were revealed today as authorities continued their investigation of the case.

Kellenberger, Jr., a sophomore, had been severely beaten early Saturday, P. A. Shoe, of Mebane, N. C., a sophomore, told the police that he had been severely beaten by a group of men who he said were in the room when he was seized by a weapon.

According to his story, they knocked on his door early Sunday, one of them saying he had a telegram. Shoe said he opened the door but seeing the men grabbed his gun and they started beating him.

The men, Shoe added, then beat a hasty retreat.

Two freshmen, R. C. Pleasant and J. A. Massengill, of Benson, N. C., reported they had been attacked early Saturday. They believed, however, it was hanging on the part of sophomores since they were given very short haircuts.

Massengill has a black eye, the result of a blow when he resisted. Having, however, is prohibited by law at all state institutions.

Kellenberger was at the home of his parents in Greensboro with serious injuries. Physicians said he had possible internal injuries as a result of an attack on him early Saturday morning. Kellenberger said he was beaten into unconsciousness with a blackjack.

Man Attempts Suicide On His 43rd Birthday

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 10.—(AP)—A 43-year-old man leaped from a ferry boat here today in an attempt to end his life by drowning in the Mississippi river. He was rescued by passengers who saw him struggling in the water, and said he had "no home, no friends and no job."

He gave his name as John Creeden, and said he was originally from New York state. Today, he declared, was his 43rd birthday.

"Did you kill Blacky the Crow?" demanded Reddy.

have been a greater fright. You see, every one recognized that voice as the voice of Blacky the Crow.

With frightened eyes they all peered up in the top of an apple tree. There Blacky the Crow. He was just as black as ever. His voice was just as harsh as ever. His eyes were just as bright as ever. But it couldn't be Blacky, because Blacky was dead. It must be Blacky the ghost. And that is what the little people of the Old Orchard thought.

THE SON OF TARZAN No. 68

More was in the letter—words that made Meriem's heart beat faster and a happy flush mount her cheeks. But when next evening she arrived at the trying place she was astonished to find not Meriem but two other riders. She drew back startled as the new one was Hanson. "Mr. Baynes had an accident. His horse fell on him, so he sent me to meet you and bring you to camp." In the darkness Meriem could not see the fellow's gloating, triumphant expression.

Troubled by this unexpected turn of events, Meriem followed Hanson. All night they rode. The girl did not know where the camp lay. Hanson had brought well-filled saddlebags. They halted for breakfast and again rode on. Meriem finally became suspicious. Gradually the attitude of this fellow was changing. Often she surprised him devouring her with his eyes. Steadily an idea urged itself on her—somewhere, sometime before she had known this man.

At last they broke out of the jungle and upon the opposite river bank Meriem saw a camp. "There we are," said Hanson. He fired his revolver and native boys came to paddle them across. When she asked for Baynes, Hanson pointed toward the single tent standing in the center of the inclosure. "He is there," he said, and held back the flap for Meriem to enter. As she did so she saw the tent was empty.

"Where is Mr. Baynes?" she demanded. "He ain't here," replied Hanson, grinning. "But I'm here and I'm a better man than he is. You don't need him no more. You got me. He laughed as he reached for her. Meriem struggled to free herself. As she fought there came a sudden recollection of a similar scene and with it full recognition of her assailant. He was Malibini the Swede! But today there would be no Swans to rescue her!
